

THE INTERNATIONAL JURY RESULTS, PQ 71

=====

The International Jury PQ 71, consisting of : Mrs Milica Požarskaja, Chairman, Professor Margaret Dietrich, Mr Saulo Benavente, Mr Olavo Rodriguez, Mr. Josef Svoboda, Mr Ladislav Vychodil, Mr Denis Bablet, Mr Andreas Reinhardt and Professor Walter Unruh awarded the following PQ 71 prizes during their last meeting :

THE GOLDEN TRICA - to the national exposition of the German Democratic Republic in view of the work of Mr Horst Sagert.

THE GOLD MEDAL - with special mention from the Jury for the researchwork in scenography by the Polish stage designers : Jozsef Szajna, Jerzy Gurawski, Leokadie Serafinowicz and Zofie Wierchowicz for their work on Shakespeare.

The International Jury recommended the awarding of four Gold Medals in the sphere of stage design and costume design and decided that the premium should be divided ex aequo between : Mr Michel Raffaelli (France) for stage design
Mr Hélio Michbauer (Brazil) for stage design
Mr David Borovskij (USSR) for stage designs
for theatre Taganka,
Mrs Gunilla Palmstierna-Weiss (Sweden) for costume design

In the section for architecture the International Jury awarded Silver Medals to :

Mr Pierre Simonde and Mrs Anne-Marie Simonde (Switzerland) for Integrated Theatre designs and Honorary Diplomas to the architecture expositions of Finland, the USSR and France.

The International Jury further recommended the awarding of PQ 71 Honorary Mentions to :
the national exposition of Japan and the German Federal Republic and the following artists :

Jorge Carrozzino-Carmen Prieto (Uruguay)
Susanne Sommer (Austria)
Juha Lukala (Finland)

For the Czechoslovak exposition the International Jury recommended the following awards :

The Gold Medal for Stage Design to Mr. Oldřich Šimáček

The Gold Medal for Costume Design to Mrs Helena Bezáková

The Silver Medal for Stage Design to Mr Štefan Hudák

The Silver Medal for Costume Design to Mr Adolf Wenig

Prague, June 9th, 1971